

Kyriaki Karidoyanes FitzGerald, M.Div., Ph.D.

Kyriaki Karidoyanes FitzGerald, M.Div., Ph.D. is an Orthodox theologian, author and licensed psychologist. She completed graduate theological studies at Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology, the School of Theology of the University of Thessaloniki, Greece and Boston University. She presently serves as Adjunct Professor of Theology at Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology and has also served as Visiting Professor at the Bossey Ecumenical Institute of the World Council of Churches in Geneva, Switzerland and St. Vladimir's Theological Seminary. She represents the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople at ecumenical and inter-faith conferences, in this capacity she has also served on the Faith and Order Commission of the World Council of Churches. Her book publications include the critically acclaimed Women Deacons in the Orthodox Church: Called to Holiness and Ministry, Orthodox Women Speak: Discerning the "Signs of the Times" (ed.), Encountering Women of Faith: St. Catherine's Vision Collection (ed.) vol. 1 and vol. 2 (anticipated Spring/Summer 2010), Living the Beatitudes: Perspectives from Orthodox Spirituality (co-authored with her husband, Rev. Dr. Thomas FitzGerald), Persons in Communion: A Theology of Authentic Relationships. Professor FitzGerald serves on the Editorial Board for the International Journal for the Study of the Christian Church, she founded and serves on the board of St. Catherine's Vision (SCV), an organization endorsed by the Standing Conference of Orthodox Bishops of America (SCOBA) dedicated to contributing to the "building up the body of Christ" through initiatives addressing education, spiritual renewal and oneness in Christ. For a second year, she serves as consultant and on-air contributor for the Boston area cable access television program Feast of Healthy Thoughts engaging contemporary themes related to Christian theology, spirituality and psychology.